2. [redacted] of the IO Division had recently seen Bob Macy, Bureau of the Budget, and had another meeting with him scheduled for this morning. He sent [redacted] to see Ed Saunders and Ed told him to go ahead and keep his morning appointment but to give him a Memorandum for the Record of what had transpired at all meetings he had had with Mr. Macy to date. This points up the tendency of the Bureau of the Budget to bypass the Comptroller and re-emphasizes the necessity for the Comptroller to control all liaison with the Bureau of the Budget.

4. [redacted] I told him that I felt it would be highly improper for the Agency to insure people in this category but that I would not hesitate to instruct the Comptroller to advance funds immediately so that they could be insured pending the working out of arrangements, consistent with security, where they could be covered if they so desired. He will carry the ball with the General Counsel and the Office of Personnel and check back with me later.

STAT

5. [redacted] telephoned and asked me to name three or four people whom I thought were good executives and would be in a position to advise him concerning desirable traits to look for in candidates for the Junior Career Development Program.

STAT

6. I asked Ed Saunders to obtain an unofficial copy of the letter from the Bureau of the Budget which was supposed to have been dispatched to all federal agencies about a month ago. This letter has to do with setting up a system in each agency to check on the conduct of employees.

7. Ed Saunders advised me that he had heard he was expected to take Mr. [redacted] in his Office when he returned and said that he was opposed to such an arrangement. I told him to put the matter before the Career Service Board.

9. Ed and I talked about possible candidates for the Advanced School of Business Administration at Harvard and decided to consider [redacted] However, I shall make a definite decision when I have seen all of the nominees.

STAT

10. Obtained the Director's approval to recall [redacted] to active duty as a Major General and assign him as the Chief of the Planning Staff in the Logistics Office. Have asked [redacted] to make a quick check after which I will confirm the arrangement with [redacted] and then ask the Office of Personnel to do the necessary paper work. Mr. Dulles seemed to be enthusiastic and said that if our attempts to recall [redacted] to active duty failed we might consider the use of a Public Law No. 53 position.

11. Dr. Tietjen reported that [redacted] CIA patient at the Mt. Alto Hospital, definitely does have sleeping sickness of a virus origin. The illness is not contagious nor does he consider any quarantine measures to be necessary. Although there is no evidence to indicate that there is any connection between [redacted] illness and the solvent which he has been using in the Reproduction Plant, Dr. Tietjen thinks that this is a possibility and will continue to investigate the use of the solvent.
